October 16, 2017
James City County Rec. Center

Meeting was called to order at 10:05 AM.
Sandy Petti substituted for the president.

Officers are needed for next year. We should know who will accept positions in a few weeks.

We had two guests: Leah Howard, a friend of Kathy, and Liz Vonasek, a friend of Cindy.

The September minutes were approved.

Treasury has $3135.87.

Sunshine-Virginia Banks suffered a fall at home. Dave says she's doing well.

Program for November-Laura from the Dream Shop will visit us and tell about the work they do with Guatemala and other local craftsmen. Their shop is at Eastern State Hospital and we are invited to visit.

December program is pot luck and challenge results.

The Super Bash will be held in January. No one can leave the bash until they submit an idea for a program for 2018.

The snacks for the November meeting will be brought by Ingrid - sweet, and Linda A – savory.

We will be at the Williamsburg Farmers Market on October 28. Please bring a table if you can.
7:30-11:30.

Show and tell:

Kathy K-multiple color autumn shawl

Mickie P- aqua stripe twill towels and 10 Temari balls

Cindy F - black and white baby blanket

Liz V – clasped weft woven scarves of city skylines

Goodie B - woven cylinder bag for holding plastic bags. Felted bookmarks and felted flower scarf clasp.

The program for October was a guided tour of the textiles exhibit at the Dewitt-Wallace Museum in Colonial Williamsburg. After a tour of the African-American quilts, we were told the history of the clothes and cloth of early Colonial Williamsburg citizens. Some items we could inspect were old samplers and original cloth items from the time period. It was very nice to see items that regular visitors don't get to see. They are too old and precious to be on display.

Following the tour, the group ate lunch at the Museum Cafe.

Members present: Sandi P, Goodie B, Ann H, Natalie C, Jane G, Cindy F, Marsha R, Micki P, Debbie R, Kathy K, Kris W, and Claudia M.

Respectfully submitted,

Claudia Melgaard
